JUNIOR WELLS' CHICAGO BLUES BAND

Hoodoo Man Blues with Buddy Guy (DMK 6612)

Hoodoo Man Blues is considered by most blues aficionados and fans to be one of the best blues albums of all time. It was inducted into the Grammy Hall of Fame and was chosen by the readers of Living Blues magazine as a top ten Desert Island Blues disc. Recorded on September 22 & 23, 1965, Hoodoo Man Blues was the first studio album to capture a working Chicago blues band doing essentially what they did on stage without time constraints to accommodate the singles market. Of course both Junior Wells & Buddy Guy went on to become international blues stars. This new digipak re-issue contains 17 performances: the 12 songs from the original LP, 3 alternates that have been available on CD plus 4 never-before released performances. There's one completely unissued song, "I Ain't Stranded," and 3 alternate takes to "Yonder Wall" in which Buddy Guy is playing through the Leslie speaker as he did on the title track, something guitar players are still copying to this day. The new four-panel digipak and 16-page booklet package contains eight never-before-seen photos from the recording session. 60 minutes long (15 minutes longer than the last version).

JUNIOR WELLS & THE ACES

Live In Boston (DMK 609)

WITH LOUIS MYERS • DAVE MYERS • FRED BELOW

This live recording takes us back to just a few months after the release of the legendary Hoodoo Man Blues album. Junior is accompanied by the Aces – Louis Myers, guitar; Dave Myers, bass; Fred Below, drums. Eleven songs and great bits shared by Junior and the audience in between songs comes to over 65 minutes of pure blues delight. "I Wanna Boogie," "Messin' With The Kid," "Man Downstairs," "Worried Life Blues," "Hideaway," "That's All Right," "Look On Yonder's Wall," "Got My Mojo Workin'" and more.

ON THE COVER: Delmark Records is proud to present an all new version of an all time classic by Junior Wells, the one and only "Hoodoo Man Blues". This new and improved CD includes bonus tracks, never before seen photographs and new liner notes. Other hot Junior Wells titles are also available on Delmark Records, including the 2010 release "Live In Boston 1966", which documents Junior in his natural element - a small club with a live audience. Junior Wells on Delmark Records = Chicago blues unfiltered. The way it should be.

MILES DAVIS: LIVE-EVIL (180 GRAM VINYL)

(2-LP set) Originally released in 1971, Live-Evil is one of Davis' most extraordinary records. Here, on a double album comprised of both live and studio recordings, the electric sound that Davis first unveiled the year previous emerges as a fully formed and powerful beast. Featuring one of his finest bands, which included John McLaughlin, Keith Jarrett, Gary Bartz, Jack DeJohnette, and Brazilian percussionist Airto, Live-Evil is a stunning exploration of the outer limits of Jazz, and one of the most influential records of the '70s. Absolutely essential. Reissued on 180 gram vinyl in a gatefold jacket.

MILES DAVIS: DARK MAGUS (180 GRAM VINYL)

(2-LP set) Dark Magus was recorded at Carnegie Hall in 1974 but went unreleased until 1977, when it was put out in Japan only. As a result, these stunning live recordings have been incredibly hard to find on vinyl, until now. These are some of the heaviest, and headiest, tracks Davis ever cut, and his band is in top form. Absolutely classic and essential electric jazz fusion from the dude that invented the genre. Reissued on 180 gram vinyl in a gatefold jacket.

DMZ: DMZ (180 GRAM VINYL)

Originally released in 1978 on Sire Records, DMZ's first and only LP never really fit into the punk/new-wave mold that was forced upon it. These 5 shaggy haired dudes from Boston were more interested in the Sonics than the Sex Pistols and their goal, as stated by frontman Jeff "Mono Man" Conolly was "fusing the sound of the Chocolate Watchband and The Stooges." Produced by Flo & Eddie, of The Turtles' fame, this album was much maligned at the time but has come to be accepted as a classic record that helped jump start the ongoing garage-rock revival that began in the '80s. In fact, Mono Man, upon the breakup of DMZ, founded the group Lyres in 1979, a legendary garage-rock band that carry on to this day. Reissued on 180 gram vinyl and available in the LP format for the first time since its initial release.

ABSTRACT LOGIX LIVE 2010

(2-DVD set) On November 20 and 21, 2010, maverick record label Abstract Logix hosted a series of spectacular performances, featuring an array of artists who handily defy genre categorization in favor of unbridled expression. The first New Universe Festival was a die-hard music lover's dream, defined by artists who seamlessly mingle compositional ingenuity and improvisational grace and fervor. Among the featured musicians were pioneering guitarist John McLaughlin and his current band the 4th Dimension with special guest, tabla legend Zakir Hussain; Widespread Panic guitar hero Jimmy Herring with his electric band; Return To Forever Drummer Lenny White; the all-star quartet Human Element (keyboardist Scott Kinsey, bassist Matt Garrison, percussionist Arto Tunçboyacıyan; fearless guitarist and improviser Wayne Krantz appearing with the amazing Anthony Jackson on bass; visionary Indian composer and drummer Ranjit Barot; and emerging guitar visionary Alex Machacek. The DVDs include all the songs from the two-CD set along with an all star tribute to John McLaughlin plus interviews and behind the scenes footage. NTSC all region.

"I feel honored to participate," says festival headliner John McLaughlin, while on tour promoting his Grammy-nominated album To the One. "My life has been dedicated to my instrument and music, and I continue to devote myself to music in order to be worthy of such a privilege. You will hear the kind of complicity that exists between us all - this is a very special element, and frankly essential for making good music."

Jimmy Herring very succinctly put it, "This is real music played by real people, happening in real time. We're up there listening and reacting to one another, and people genuinely respond to the risks we take. This is human music in a mechanized age."

•"It was a veritable smorgasbord of fusion, with many of the top-notch artists in the genre coming together for a series of performances. Jazz-rock fans attending the inaugural event heard legends like John McLaughlin and Lenny White, established names such as Wayne Krantz, Human Element and Jimmy Herring, as well as up-and-comers like Alex Machacek and Ranjit Barot. From start to finish, the music was electric, even when it was being played acoustically. There was also a palpable sense of community as artists generously participated in listening sessions and sat in with each other throughout the event. I highly recommend this festival and look forward to seeing and hearing its second incarnation in 2012." - Lee Mergner, JazzTimes

VAN DYKE PARKS: ARRANGEMENTS VOL. 1

This new compilation is presented by Van Dyke Park's Bananastan label. All of the tracks on this album, by a diverse range of artists, have one thing in common- they were arranged by Van Dyke Parks. This compilation covers Parks' first solo recordings through the classic creative period of Warner Brothers, where his arrangements and production can be found throughout the roster. Including both rare sides and hit records, Van Dyke's touch can be heard throughout these fine tracks. From the mid sixties through the early seventies, this new compilation contains 15 classics appearing together on one album for the first time. From the earliest work of Ry Cooder to classic Little Feat; Bonnie Raitt's Calypso to Arlo Guthrie's gospel; The Mojo Men's psychedelic sounds to six rare or unreleased Van Dyke Parks solo recordings; from Dino Martin Jr's hot reggae to Beau Brummels' Sal Valentino's and Little Feat's Lowell George's solo sides; these 15 songs all have the arranging imprint of the great Van Dyke Parks. Tracks: "Donovan's Colours" (mono) - George Washington Brown, "Come to the Sunshine" - Van Dyke Parks, "The Eagle And Me" - Van Dyke Parks, "Friends and Lovers" - Sal Valentino, "Alligator Man" - Sal Valentino, "Farther Along" - Van Dyke Parks, "Valley to Pray" - Arlo Guthrie, "Out On The Rolling Sea When Jesus Speak To Me" - Van Dyke Parks, "Sittin' Here in Limbo" - Dino Martin, "Wha She Go Do" - Bonnie Raitt, "Sit Down I Think I Love You" - The Mojo Men, "One Meat Ball" - Ry Cooder, "Cheek To Cheek" - Lowell George, "Spanish Moon" - Little Feat, "Moog Music" ('67) - Van Dyke Parks.

PETER THOMAS
ORCHESTRA :
ORION 2000

The highpoint of a career that boasts the legendary 'Space Patrol' (Raumpatrouille) and 'Chariots Of The Gods' soundtracks, Peter Thomas' 'Orion 2000' is a near-mythical release that was only ever pressed in minuscule amounts as a German library LP (in 1975) and has never been available commercially before now. Drums pound, basses buzz, horns flail and star-maidens wail. Berserk electronic and musique-concrete effects collide with manic energy. There is nothing on this world (or any other) that sounds like the 'Blaxploitation-Kraut-Jazz-in-Space' sound of the Orchestra Peter Thomas. Remastered from the original master tapes and presented with exclusive liner notes and rare photos.

THE STONEMANS: ALL IN THE FAMILY

Founded around 1920s Hillbilly recording star 'Pop' Stoneman, by the mid-1960s the group comprised Pop and 5 of his 13 children. With a dizzying sound that melded old-timey traditions, sunshine pop and breakneck bluegrass jams, The Stonemans hit the country charts often but are now strangely forgotten. Mini-skirts and mandolins mutate through quasi-psychedelic visions of space (The Five Little Johnson Girls), identity fraud (Christopher Robin) and suburban delirium (West Canterbury Subdivision Blues), while instrumentals like "Bluegrass Ramble" cut and sear. For the very first time all of their chart hits and many astounding LP cuts are presented on this 32 track CD, remastered from the original master tapes and presented with exclusive liner notes and a treasure trove of fabulous photos.

Walter "Junie" Morrison has never gotten his due as one of the funkier badasses of his era. You'd think that co-founding the Ohio Players and writing/arranging/singing many of their early hits (particularly "Pain" and "Funky Worm"), then releasing three mind-blowing solo records on which he played every single instrument before joining P-Funk in time to co-write huge chunks of "One Nation Under A Groove," "Motor Booty Affair," "Uncle jam Wants You" and "Gloryhallastoopid" would be enough to elevate a man to the exalted pantheon of widely-recognized funk geniuses. You would also be wrong, at least on the "widely-recognized" part. Years before he hit pay-dirt as the mastermind behind the success of New Edition and New Kids On The Block, producer/composer/talent scout Maurice Starr cut his debut solo effort Flaming Starr for RCA Records in 1980. Inspired by the way-out vibe(s) of George Clinton as well as the funk ballads of the Isley Brothers, Maurice with the help of sibling Michael Jonzun tried to stake his claim in the world of funk with the use of synthesizers & drum machines in his sound which resulted in the creation of what we now call electro-funk. EVELYN KING: FACE TO FACE (EXPANDED & LIMITED EDITION)

After two consecutive trips to the #1 R&B position on the Hot R&B Album chart with the phenomenal "I'm In Love" and "Get Loose" albums, the Evelyn came out a year later (in 1983) with "Face to Face," a perplexing platter which bordered on the experimental and which retained her trademark funky side, but which also made an attempt at more Minneapolis-styled music via producer, Andre Cymone (Jody Watley, The Girls.) On the Leon Sylvers-produced singles "Action" and "Shake Down," she excels, remaining true to her R&B/Funk roots and landing two Top 20 R&B hits. Tracks: Action, Face To Face, Shake Down, Tell Me Something Good, Don't It Feel Good, Makin' Me So Proud, Givin' You My Love (what Cha Gonna Do With It), Teenager, Let's Get Crazy, Shake Down (Dub Version), Teenager (12" Version), Action (7" Version), Shake Down (7" version). JAMES D-TRAIN WILLIAMS: IN YOUR EYES - EXPANDED EDITION (LIMITED EDITION)

This was one of the most criminally under-promoted and underexposed R&B/Soul albums of the late 1980s. On this album, James "D Train" Williams gives us some glorious, heartwarming and soul-stirring vocal performances on the ballads "Curious", "Child Of Love", "If You Know What I Know" and the poignant "Shadow Of Another Love". The uptempo dance numbers "Runner", "Order In The House", "Diamond In The Night" and the title track are all fine examples of truly soulful dance/club music and let D Train flex his powerful vocal muscles to great effect. Tracks: In Your Eyes, Order In The House, With All My Heart, If You Know What I Know, Shadow Of Another Love, Runner, Curious, Child Of Love, Diamond In The Night, My Friend, Smile, Runner - 7", In Your Eyes - Dub Mix, Runner - Dub Mix, In Your Eyes - 7". GEORGE DUKE: DREAM ON (LIMITED EDITION)

George Duke challenges the monster catchy, poppy, dancable funk of Earth,Wind & Fire here and aside from two redundant covers of "Reach for It" and "Someday" (neither of which are bad either),tunes like the Chic-sh tital track,the synthesizer-heavy "Framed", the dancable "Ride On Love","Shine On" and a superior rare groove instrumental "Positive Energy" capture Duke at his best and most memorable. "Let Your Love Shine" is a great example of Duke's ballad stylings-far superior to his other slower numbers in terms of sheer songcraft. Tracks: Shine On, You, Dream On, I Will Always Be Your Friend Framed, Ride On Love, Son Of Reach For It (the Funky Dream), Someday, Positive Energy, Let Your Love Shine, Shine On - 7" Version. JOE COHN: FUEGO

Joe Cohn's second Criss Cross outing is a swinging affair. Joined by Dutch master pianist Peter Beets, and New York A-listers, bassist John Webber and drummer Kenny Washington, the young guitar veteran (who is the son of the iconic tenor saxophonist-composer Al Cohn) addresses a strong program of first-rate, less traveled jazz and song-book standards, uncorking a string of inspired solos that blend polish and vigor with a style that traverses a broad timeline of vocabulary on his instrument - he reaffirms his position as a major voice on today's playing field.

OPUS 5: INTRODUCING OPUS 5

An empathetic power of five is at work in the collaborative project known as Opus 5, working in the long shadow of the great vintage quintets, ala Blakey and pre-electric Miles Davis. On the front line, tenor saxophonist Seamus Blake and rising star trumpeter Alex Sipiagin - a Russian in NYC - are bolstered by pianist David Kikoski, drummer Donald Edwards and another bold Russian émigré, bassist Boris Kozlov. In the song set are compositions by band members, George Cables' "Think of Me", "Braziliana" by Toninho Horta, and the reborn Russian folk tune "Sokol" honoring the Russian roots within the band.

JOHN ESCREET: EXCEPTION TO THE RULE

John Escreet's Criss Cross debut is one of the singular recordings in the Criss Cross catalog. Out of Doncaster, England, and a New Yorker since 2006, the 26-year-old pianist-composer deploys the talents of New York first-callers David Binney, who incorporates live electronics into the flow as well as his alto sax, Eivind Opsvik on bass, and Nasheet Waits on drums. Synthesizing a broad template of sources into his own sonic vision, Escreet presents a stimulating, kinetic, heady program that solidifies his reputation as a musical ground breaker rooted in the verities of groove and high craft.

(2-LP + Digital download) Released as the follow-up to the acclaimed Fig. 5, 2001's Liberation finds these 12 artisans of sound (using a mix of percussion, guitar, vibes, saxophone, violin, and electronics) "liberated" of the confines of any set genre or structure, hovering somewhere in the very outer stratosphere of song itself. From spaced-out jams like "The Pigeon" and "Peace On Earth", to their take on Dino Valenti's "Something On Your Mind" (released on Karen Dalton's 1971 album), this amorphous beast can still deliver a rewarding experience to those who dare to journey beyond the instant gratification of the pop song, for it is here that the future of music is being written.

(2-LP + Digital download) Formed in Portland, Oregon in 1994 by multi-instrumentalists Tom Greenwood and Jef Brown, and drawing inspiration from a multitude of sources (jazz, Appalachian folk, soul, African-American spirituals, west coast surf-rock, Protestant hymns, Louisville post-rock, bluegrass, electronic noise) and an ever changing roster of members, JOMF somehow manages to use this eclecticism to their advantage, creating a sound that functions as a cohesive whole. The critically acclaimed Fig. 5, originally released in 2000 on Road Cone, is a kind of dream-like journey through the past and future of the American song. Such diverse offerings as the opening "Analogue Skillet", the prison camp work song "Go Down, Old Hannah", or the 24-min "Michigan Avenue Social Club", become the inherent pieces of a unified manifesto.

VARIOUS ARTISTS: THREE O'CLOCK MERRIAN WEBSTER TIME

By the time 1966 ended, many of the groups in Texas who started out playing British Invasion and folk-rock music, were now immersing themselves in the newly emerging psychedelic music. The five groups that comprise this album reflect the changes that occurred during this period and four of them even changed their names to sound more psychedelic. The Nomads became Smoke, Carrols Mood became The Sights And Sounds, The New Imperials became The Front Page News, and The Boys became The Remaining Few. Represented by twelve tracks on this album, The Nomads/Smoke, started out playing folk-rock music, but by 1967 went psychedelic-as witnessed by their "freak-out" version of "My Little Red Book" replete with backwards tapes. "Carrols Mood" went from singing ballads to surreal songs such as "Mystical Bells". The Front Page News went from the soul of "Baby Let Me Bang Your Box" to the fuzz drenched "Thoughts and Afterthoughts". If the 13th Floor Elevators were the epitome of what a Texas psychedelic band was, then the groups on this album were not far behind in trying to emulate that state of existence. Here then are twenty-two tracks compiling the changes that occurred from late 1966 to 1968, when the Texas bands went metaphorically speaking from "Kool-Aid" to "Electric Kool-Aid Acid".

THE LEMON FOG: THE PSYCHEDELIC SOUND OF SUMMER WITH THE LEMON FOG

The spacey psychedelic sound of The Lemon Fog never sounded better with all their singles, previously unreleased outtakes, and complete version of "Summer", all from the original master tapes. Hailing from Houston, Texas, The Lemon Fog blew many minds during 1967-68, quickly becoming a popular draw at the local Houston hot spot, "The Living Eye". Their first single "Theme For The Living Eye" (changed to "Lemon Fog" upon release) was a psych-pop flower power masterpiece released in the winter of 1967. The b-side "Echoes of Time" was nothing short of brilliant, reminiscent of the British psych scene. In June, 1968, the second Lemon Fog single, "Summer", was released and remains the signature track of the band with its moody and introspective sound, unusual for a summer themed song. "Summer" should have been a number one hit. The Lemon Fog's third and final single, "The Prisoner" and "Day By Day" was released in November 1968, but also failed to chart. 16 track compilation also features alternate and unreleased versions.

ALAK / PREGNANT: TRADITION

On April 27th 2010, Jocelyn Noir of the experimental-folk-pop group Alak and boyfriend Daniel Trudeau of the self proclaimed genre hillbilly-savant-electronica project Pregnant, gave birth to their daughter Juniper. Not wanting to give into parenthood's lulls, the two musicians have decided to press on and continue writing music for the willing ear. Alak's music delivers sincere vocals with a lo-fi Beefheart-ish consistency while Pregnant's high pitched male vocals amid his tasteful sample driven electronics and production, produce a euphoric shroud of sound. This split release, entitled "Tradition", is called so to commemorate the musicians going on a full month long U.S. tour with their now one year old daughter. The tour will involve a stop at every show to place their daughter's hands in paint and make a "memory map" of all the places they've seen along the way. "Tradition" will include older songs either released or unreleased and will include new songs made especially for this split album.

10 YEAR ANNIVERSARY SPECIAL 2001-2011

In celebration of their 10 year anniversary, Build An Ark founder / producer Carlos Niño has put together a special new release comprised of over an hour of material taken from live performances, rehearsals and recording sessions, most of which have never been previously released. Featuring Nate Morgan, Dwight Trible, Phil Ranelin, Miguel Atwood-Ferguson, Mia Doi Todd, Gaby Hernandez, Dimlite and more; it's a 10 year overview that tells a story and is not just a compilation of a bunch of bonus tracks and outtakes. Full ensemble improvisations, solos pieces and flowing medleys all find their way into this retrospective that wonderfully represents the depth and scope that Build An Ark has channeled over the years.

Above The Clouds is a very meditative recording made in an ashram in Fiji. Features the melodious sounds of the North Indian bansuri (bamboo flute). According to Billboard magazine "The bansuri flute is one of the most sensual and serene instruments to come out of India. Only a couple of Westerners have mastered it's intricacy and nuance...one is John Wubbenhorst..." Very suitable also for those involved in yoga who would like an atmosphere of deep relaxation. John studied for years under the great Indian bansuri master Hariprasad Chasurasia and his improvisations reflect that classical North Indian training. Fans of Paul Horn and "Inside The Taj Mahal" will also appreciate this unique recording.

JOHNNY MERCER: MUSIC SHOP

Johnny Mercer was a Southern gentleman who was born in Savannah, Georgia on November the 18th 1909. He wrote more lyrics than any other song writer, more than one thousand in all, including Blues In The Night, That Old Black Magic, Dream and Moon River. His amiable style of singing emphasizing his Southern drawl made him very popular, his biggest record hits being On The Aitchison Topeka And The Santa Fe, Accentuate The Positive, Personality, Candy and Baby It's Cold Outside. He was at one time master of ceremonies and singer for the Paul Whiteman Band and by 1939 was singing on the Benny Goodman radio Show. The recordings on this disc come from his own popular radio show Johnny Mercer's Music Shop which also featured Jo Stafford and The Pied Pipers with June Hutton (Jo Stafford was originally one of The Pied Pipers but when she went solo her place was taken by June Hutton). Tracks include: Introduction by Johnny Mercer and Wendell Myles; Is You Is Or Is You Ain't My Baby (voc: Johnny Mercer); San Fernando Valley (voc: Johnny Mercer); My Blue Heaven; Love Go Away (voc: The Pied Pipers with June Hutton); It Could Happen To You (voc: Jo Stafford).

ANDRE KOSTELANETZ AND HIS ORCHESTRA: WALTZING AND MARCHING

An original idea to produce a CD of The Andre Kostelanetz Orchestra playing first some of the great waltz tunes by composers such as Franz Lehar, Emmrich Kalman, Oscar Strauss and Johan Strauss II and then juxtapose them with a selection of the Great Marches by the likes of John Phillip Sousa, George and Ira Gershwin. The problem of getting the feeling of a parade onto a disc was a challenge that fascinated maestro Kostelanetz. Fortunately recording techniques in the studio and hi-fi systems at home offered a wonderfully ingenious solution, he said. He added that parade music was music in motion - it was the only type of music that was supposed to move. Tracks include: "Sari" Waltz; Vienna City Of My Dreams; Gold And Silver Waltz; Two Heart In Three Quarter Time; Waltz Dream; "Gypsy Baron" Waltz; "Zigeunerliebe" Gypsy Love Waltz.

While in Beirut to attend a glamorous banquet, legendary French actress Catherine Deneuve (Potiche, Belle de Jour) insists on being taken to the southern regions of Lebanon in order to see firsthand the devastation caused by Israel's month-long bombing campaign there in the summer of 2006. Titled Je Veux Voir in French, I Want To See cleverly blurs the lines between documentary and fiction. Directors Khalil Joreige and Joana Hadjithomas (A Perfect Day) create a mesmerizing, thought-provoking travelogue in which they appear as filmmakers capturing Deneuve's road-trip on camera. After visiting the crumbling ruins of ancient villages and watching as the shattered remnants of cities and towns are slowly pushed into the sea, Deneuve is somewhat transformed when she arrives later that evening before the myriad photographers ardently capturing her image at the elegant evening gala. RAFAEL FRUHBECK DE BURGOS & NEW PHILHARMONIA ORCHESTRA: SUITE ESPANOLA (LIMITED EDITION)

(2-LP set) Albeniz's Suite Espanola are, like many of his piano pieces, miniature tone pictures of different geographical regions and musical idioms of Spain. Suite Espanola, Op. 47, is a suite for solo piano. It is mainly composed of works written in 1886 which were grouped together in 1887, in honor of the Queen of Spain. The work originally consisted of four pieces: Granada, Cataluna, Seville and Cuba. The editor Hofmeister republished the Suite espanola in 1912, after Albeniz's death, but added Cadiz, Asturias, Aragon and Castile. The four pieces that Hofmeister added do not exactly reflect the geographical region to which they refer. Despite the spurious nature of the Suite Espanola, however, it has become one of the most performed of Albeniz's piano works, a favorite of both pianists and audiences. VARIOUS ARTISTS: DISCO GOLD - SCEPTER RECORDS, TOM MOULTON AND THE BIRTH OF DISCO

Tom Moulton, a former fashion model, had an instinctive ear for what would work in a club, and began to create mixes of records that catered to the dance crowd. He mixed hundreds of records for a myriad of labels, but his initial work was done at Scepter Records. The very best gathered together on the two volumes of the LP "Disco Gold", from which we have distilled this CD. Moulton's remixes extended parts that kept the floor full, and created the peaks and troughs that would send a crowd wild with excitement. The music on this CD defines the remix for those who followed: from Walter Gibbon through Masters At Work, to Harvey and Ashley Beadle. ### WARNER MACK: GONNA SHAKE THIS SHACK TONIGHT – BABY SQUEEZE ME

Warner Mack wrote and recorded two classic songs of the rock & roll era – Is It Wrong (For Loving You), and Roc-A-Chicka. But he was responsible for many more country and pop hits, both as a singer and a songwriter. His prolific Decca output of the 1950s has not been recognised for the significant and influential body of work it is – until now. In this CD you'll find a massive 38 tracks recorded by this important artist during the classic era when rock 'n' roll met the Nashville Sound! Here are all 12 tracks from Warner Mack's six Decca singles issued during 1957 and 1958; 16 tracks not originally issued by Decca; and four tracks from singles issued on Scarlet and Top Rank in 1959 and 1960.

LEE EMERSON: IT'S SO EASY FOR YOU TO BE MEAN

Lee Emerson left rural poverty in Virginia for a new life out west. In Cody, Wyoming in 1953 he recorded his first single for Wagon Wheel Records. Friends told him he should go to Nashville, so he did. Right after arriving, he landed a contract with Columbia and caught the attention of the label's biggest star, Marty Robbins. They taped two duet sessions together – the very few Robbins ever did! Emerson's Columbia issues also included his original version of what is now a bluegrass classic, I Thought I Heard You Calling My Name. Emerson shuttled between hillbilly, rockabilly, and rock 'n' roll. Two unissued Columbia masters are included. In 1961, Emerson recorded an R&B single as Heywood Jenkins for Mercury, but didn't record again until 1976. In between, he wrote one of Marty Robbins' biggest hits, Ruby Ann.

JOHNNY TILLOTSON: THE OUTTAKES

(2-CD set) Johnny Tillotson is an international star who secured 26 entries on the Billboard charts between 1958 and 1965. His biggest hit was Poetry In Motion which peaked at #2 in the States but managed to secure the number one position in the UK where it spent the first three weeks of 1961 at the top of the charts. These recordings, the great majority of which are released for the first time, give the listener the opportunity to hear songs develop in the studio. Some appear without later overdubs and orchestral backings that were included on the recordings first time round. A major highlight is the discovery of previously unheard versions of Poetry In Motion recorded in New York with King Curtis on sax. This version was recorded a short time before the 'hit' version, cut in Nashville with Boots Randolph. Alternative takes of the Randolph version are also included. Another major find is an unissued song in Please Help Me I'm Falling, recorded four months after the Hank Locklin hit recording.

VIN BRUCE: DANS LA LOUISIANNE

Often called 'The King Of Cajun Music,' Vin Bruce is a South Louisiana treasure of unparalleled significance. His signing to Columbia Records in the early fifties was positively historical in more ways than one. The first Cajun artist to be marketed to the widespread record buying public by a major record company, his first single, Dans la Louisianne b/w Fille de la ville, was sung purely in French, but, like Harry Choates' Jole Blon before it, that didn't keep it from becoming a country music sensation. Highlights include the hit Dans la Louisianne, the plaintive hillbilly blues My Mama Said, songs from the pens of Bruce, Atkins, Felice and Boudleaux Bryant and Autry Inman, and the unreleased Cajun bopper Le délece, featuring Chet Atkins' stellar proto-rockabilly guitar picking. This set is a revelation for Cajun and country music fans alike.

LITTLE RICHARD: ROCKS

At long last, our 'Rocks' series turns to Little Richard, one of the great innovators, a true auteur whose enduring series of smash hits on the Specialty label influenced the Western world's most popular artists including Elvis, Creedence Clearwater Revival, Otis Redding, Prince and the Beatles. Tutti Frutti, Long Tall Sally, Lucille, Jenny Jenny, Good Golly Miss Molly, Baby Face... these are the records that made the difference between R&B and primal rock 'n' roll and they're all here. There's also a clutch of non-Specialty tracks of genuine worth including the jump blues, Get Rich Quick from 1951, the semi-secret I'm In Love Again issued under the name of the World Famous Upsetters in 1962, and Get Down With It, a rip-roaring rocker recorded in England in 1966. These add further dimension to a collection of paint-stripping intensity that no one has ever topped.

RICK BAIN: VIRTUAL HEAVY PET

Portland, Oregon's own psych rock hero. Seattle's The Rocket proclaimed him "Portland's Six String Messiah!". LA Weekly said "It's as if he's skimmed the cream of the entire 70's rock era, analyzed and eliminated its weaknesses, and just plain improved on the whole thing." The Village Voice said "Rick Bain chooses substance over style." And Anton from Brian Jonestown Massacre said in a Magnet Mag interview, of all the albums in the world he wished he'd written but didn't, Rick Bain's debut "Crooked Autumn Sun" is it.

ETERNA

ENTER A WORLD OF INFINITE MYSTERY

Welcome to the enchanted world of Eterna... immerse yourself in the light that shines forth as the doors of heaven are opened and the bridge between heaven and earth is illuminated once again.

Angelic voices mixed with heavenly beats create a celestial chilled vibe, as blissful Gregorian chants soar across an ecstatic state of downtempo grooves.

You...whom we love, you do not see us,yet we are there, we are the messengers... we are always waiting forever here... Eterna
